CSF-ADJB FEATURES

Designed for versatility, comfort, and durability, the Spirit Fitness CSF-ADJB Adjustable Bench is a staple for any strength training setup. The back pad adjusts from 0 to 90 degrees, allowing users to perform a full range of bench exercises with ease. Spring-loaded lock pins enable quick and secure angle adjustments, ensuring efficiency during workouts. The three-seat angle adjustments also provide enhanced stability and optimal positioning, ensuring proper form and support for a variety of exercises.

Built for lasting performance, the contoured seat and back pads feature high-density foam, premium upholstery, and reinforced stitching, providing both comfort and durability while being easy to clean.

For added convenience, built-in transport wheels and a comfort grip handle make repositioning effortless. PVC foot covers enhance stability and protect flooring. Constructed with a heavy-gauge steel frame and commercial-grade components, the CSF-ADJB Adjustable Bench is built to withstand high-use environments and deliver exceptional performance.
